Social Responsibility from Tragedy to Meaningful Life

The date was September 10, 2001, while on a United Airlines flight 93 to Pennsylvania, Evelyn had no idea that the exact airplane she was aboard would be the very subject of immense tragedy the next day. Working for an airline, bustling in and out of cities and countries was business as usual; but what happened the following day was anything but an experience that touched Evelyn for life.

This happened to be the second time Evelyn has saved herself from a terrible accident. God gave Evelyn more than one opportunity to continue working in what she believes and is passionate for, her jewelry business can help communities in need and make a positive impact in the efforts of fighting worldwide poverty.

Social Responsibility

Evelyn Brooks Designs strongly believes in giving back to the community.

“There is a meaning in all we do in life. The reason for doing business is not simply business; we strive to bring light and beauty to the world and through our work and actions inspire others to reach out for their dreams and contribute to our society. As a new American, I feel compelled and committed to contribute to social change.”

Our company is known for socially responsible business. Through jewelry exhibitions, EBD organizes events to raise funds for community groups and non-profit organizations. We are proud to have raised funds and contribute to the success of organizations such as Fashion Fights Poverty, Empowered Women International, Fund for Women Artists among others.
